ABOUT THE HPA

The Hollywood Professional Association (HPA) is a non-profit member association dedicated to recognizing, educating, and connecting businesses and individuals that provide creative and technical expertise, support, tools and infrastructure for professional content creation, distribution and archive in the media and entertainment industry.

Through our three pillars of activities — Community, Knowledge Exchange, and Recognition — the HPA advances the arts, science and business of the media and entertainment industry.

Visit <https://hpaonline.com/about/who-we-are/> for more details on HPA's overall mission and services.

HPA AWARDS MISSION

To promote creative artistry in the field of post-production, and recognize the achievement of talent, innovation and engineering excellence in the larger professional media content industry. The first annual HPA Awards were held in November 2006.

SECTION E: ENTRY FEES

1. The total fee for each entry, regardless of how many individuals are being named:
 - a. Entries will be $145 for HPA members and $195 for non-members
 - b. HPA and SMPTE Corporate member companies may submit all entries from that company under the membership rate. Individual members may use the member rate for entries where that individual is the entrant.

SECTION F: NOMINATIONS & JUDGING

1. Judging panels with a minimum of seven (7) participants per panel will select the nominees in each category. A judge must be a full-time production or post-production professional with expertise in the category that they are judging. Voting will take place by secret ballot.
2. “Conflict of Interest” refers to the situation in which a judging panelist would be judging an entry in a category in which the judging panelist is also (i) an Entrant, (ii) a Submitter, or (iii) a current officer, director or employee of the same corporate entity where an Entrant or a Submitter is a current officer, director or employee.
3. If a “Conflict of Interest” exists, the judging panelist must (i) mark that entry with the word “abstain” on their ballot and refrain from influencing the vote of other judging panelists.
4. Where possible and appropriate, the HPA Awards Committee will strive to nominate up to five (5) entries per category. There may be fewer than five (5) nominations or none at all if deemed appropriate. A category may have more than five (5) nominations only if there is a tie for one (1) of the nominations.
5. Scoring is on a scale of 1-10; the highest average scores will determine the nominations and winners.

SECTION G: CLEARANCES & OWNERSHIP

1. By entering the Work in the HPA Awards competition, the Submitter warrants that he/she has the right to submit the Work, and HPA will consider the work cleared for only the following uses:
 - a. Screening by the HPA staff and HPA Awards committee for the purposes of vetting a submission
 - b. Screening by the judging panels and associated personnel for the purpose of evaluating and processing the work

- c. Screening during the virtual HPA Awards Ceremony for HPA members and guests
2. For finalists in the Outstanding Editing – Theatrical Feature category, HPA will request that a high-resolution clip of the Work be obtained for use at the non-broadcast HPA Awards Ceremony.
3. The physical copies of all material provided by Submitter to the HPA shall be held by the HPA free and clear of any liens or encumbrances.
4. The 2021 HPA Awards are being presented both in-person and as an online event in November, 2021. By entering, submitter authorizes the use of clips during the online event. In the event of any other uses of the clips as used in the online event, the HPA will obtain the required rights and permissions from the copyright owner and/or distributor of the material.

SECTION H: HPA SPECIAL AWARDS

Different from all other categories in the HPA Awards, the following awards are not up for submission or judging. Rather, these awards may be bestowed on an individual, a company or an organization. The HPA Board of Directors and HPA Awards Committee will select the candidates and recipient(s), if any. These are discretionary honors.

1. Charles S. Swartz Award

The Charles S. Swartz Award recognizes broad, impactful or lasting contributions that have advanced and/or provided some unique purpose to the larger media content ecosystem. The Award may be conferred on a person, group, or company that has made a significant artistic, technological, business or educational impact across diverse aspects of the media industry.

2. Lifetime Achievement Award

The Lifetime Achievement Award may be awarded by the Hollywood Professional Association to an individual who, during his or her lifetime, is recognized for their service and commitment to the professional media content industry. The mission of this award is to give deserving and respectful recognition to specific individuals who have, with great service, dedicated their careers to the betterment of our industry.

3. Judges Award for Creativity and Innovation

The HPA Judges Award for Creativity and Innovation Award was conceived to recognize companies and individuals who have demonstrated excellence, whether in the development of workflow and process to support creative storytelling or in technical innovation. The Judges Award is chosen by a jury of experts and peers.

SECTION I: HPA AWARDS WINNERS

1. All Award winners will be announced at the HPA Awards Event on the day specified in the Schedule. Each HPA Award will be presented to the individual or individuals specifically listed as an entrant in the submission form.
2. All winner information, including spelling of the winners' names, is the responsibility of the Submitter and will be taken directly off the submission.

SECTION J: THE PHYSICAL HPA AWARD

1. The HPA owns and reserves all rights to each physical HPA Award (including the intellectual property rights, design and any trademarks or patents thereon).
2. The HPA grants each recipient of a physical HPA Award and his/her heirs a limited license to possess and display the physical HPA Award for personal use only. Any other use is not permitted without the prior written consent of the HPA.
